

Australian HC calls on governor

By Our Correspondent

AUSTRALIAN High Commissioner Zorica Mcarthy called on Punjab Governor Khalid Maqbool at Governor's House on Monday and extended cooperation for provision of modern technology for the development of dairy, horticulture and food processing sectors.

Newly-appointed honorary counsel for Australia in Pakistan, Salim Ghauri, was also present. The Governor praised the appointment of Net-Sol Chairman Salim Ghauri as the honorary counsel of Australia. He said the higher education, service economy, computer software technology, dairy sector, physical fitness, fashion design and sports coaching in Pakistan had benefited from the cooperation between the two countries.
